Dr. FORSHA'S ALTERATIVE BALM, FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL USES.

DIRECTIONS.

The Alterative Balm should be well shaken before using.

RHEUMATISM.—Bathe the affected parts well with the BALM; iron it in with a flannel cloth, three or four times a day, putting it on freely at each time. In severe cases, one bottle should be used in three or four bathings.

FOR STRAINS IN THE SPINE, OR SPINAL AFFECTION AND DYSPEPSIA.—One bottle should be used in one or two bathings upon the Spine, Stomach and bowels, one tea-spoon full taken inwardly on going to bed and before eating each meal.

FOR HEAD ACHE OR STIFF NECK.—Shake the bottle and pour it on the head and rub it in well.

FOR TOOTH ACHE.—Wet cotton with the BALM, and place in the cavity of the tooth, and rub the gum.

FOR EAR ACHE.—Wet cotton with the BALM, and put in the ear, and bathe the surface around the ear.

FOR SORE THROAT, SORENESS IN THE BREAST, STOMACH OR BOWELS, OR BURNING IN THE BREAST.—Take a tea-spoon full inwardly every 2 hours, and bathe the part affected freely, and rub it in well until the disease is removed.

FOR ASTHMA.—A tea-spoon full should be given inwardly, and bathe well from the neck down to the stomach, and relief will immediately be given.

FOR BRONCHETIS.—From a half to a tea-spoon full should be taken without delution three times a day. Also, the neck thoroughly bathed on the outside.

FOR SPRAINS AND BRUISES.—Bathe the parts well with the BALM, and bandage it with cotton or flannel cloth, wetting the cloth frequently with the BALM, three or four times a day until the disease is removed.

FOR BURNS, SCALDS, OR FROZEN PARTS.—Bathe the parts well with the BALM, and in a few minutes the pain will subside and prevent blistering.

FOR CRAMP CHOLIC AND BILLIOUS CHOLIC.—Bathe the stomach and bowels well with the BALM, rub it well every ten minutes and take a tea-spoon full inwardly every hour until the disease is removed.

FOR CHOLERA AND CHOLERA MORBUS—Take a table-spoon full inwardly every 15 or 20 minutes in a little ginger tea, &c. It should be poured on the stomach and bowels, and rubbed in well. When cramped with the cholera, the limbs should be profusely bathed with the BALM and thoroughly rubbed in, and the cramps will immediately cease.

FOR PLEURISY—Take half table spoonful inwardly, bathing the chest, stomach and side freely; a half bottle full should be used at one bathing. Continue every half hour until the disease is entirely removed.

FOR FLUX.—Take a tea-spoon full every half hour, and bathe the stomach and bowels freely with the BALM, and relief will soon be obtained.

FOR FEVER AND AGUE—A table spoon full every half hour during the chill or fever, until it abates; bathe stomach, kidneys and liver freely with the Balm. It should be used four times a day for three or four days in succession, bathing each night on going to bed. A half bottle should be used at each bathing.

FOR PILES.—Take a tea-spoon full inwardly every time they cause pain or evacuation, and bathe the bowels, small of the back, and across the kidneys freely, rubbing it well until they disappear.

FOR CORNS. Bathe them well with the BALM two or three times, and they will soon disappear. Bathe freely with the BALM, and soreness will soon be removed.

FOR FRESH CUTS OR SORES—Bathe the parts freely with the Liment and inflammation and soreness will be prevented.

FOR INFLAMMATION IN THE HEAD, STOMACH, BOWELS, OR KIDNEYS.—Pour the BALM on freely and rub it well every half hour until relief is given. Take a tea-spoon full inwardly every 2 hours, where the inflammation is in either the stomach, bowels or kidneys, &c.

FOR MILK LEG.—Bathe the leg freely with the BALM (shaking it well before using,) three times a day until the disease is removed.

FOR SUMMER COMPLAINT OF CHILDREN.—Take from ten to twenty drops diluted with sweetened water, and bathe the Stomach and Bowels with the BALM.

FOR WORMS AND INFLAMMATION OF THE STOMACH AND BOWELS, AND CROUP.—Treated as above.
